

U.S. Small Business Administration

Are you certified by the SBA as an 8(a)?

or

HUBZone?

company. If not, you could be leaving Thousands or even Millions of $$$ on the Federal Government Procurement Table. Your Federal Government purchases more than $500 Billion $$$ in goods and services on an annual basis.

The above programs are all geared toward assisting socially and economically disadvantaged businesses; and small businesses located in historically underutilized business zones.
